1. With respect to the provisions of its policy, GP-2 Governing Style, the University Place Board of Directors concludes that its performance during the previous year has been
   a. x In compliance
   b. _____ In compliance, with the following exceptions:
   c. _____ Not in compliance

Comments:

Despite differences, the Board continues to model a commitment to collaboration and group accountability.

The board holds itself accountable for governing with excellence. Board members have the individual responsibility of preparing for meetings and adhering to policymaking principles.

The board was very disciplined in adhering to this principle over the last 16 months when unprecedented administrative and programmatic challenges were confronted. This discipline allowed the district to function with much greater coherence and effectiveness.

2. In order to maintain its commitment to excellence in governance, to the provisions of this policy, and to improve its own performance, the Board commits to the following actions:
